Letter of invitation for the 77th Annual Meeting of the International Society of Electrochemistry in Sydney, Australia

Letter of invitation for:
Prof. Jingshan Luo -

I am writing to you in my capacity as Chair of the Organizing Committee of the 77th Annual Meeting of the International Society of Electrochemistry (ISE).

Your abstract Supported and Bimetallic Catalysts, and 3D-Printed Electrodes for Enhanced Electrocatalysis has been accepted after review by the Program Committee and will be scheduled for presentation once you finalize the meeting registration formalities. I am therefore pleased to provide this letter of invitation as part of the visa application process that you have indicated you are required to follow by the government of Australia.

This letter relates solely to the 77th Annual ISE Meeting, which will run from 6 to 11 September 2026. In providing this letter of invitation, the Organizing Committee accepts no obligation for your financial or other support and the invitation does not extend to any associated visits you may wish to arrange.

On behalf of the Society, I look forward to welcoming you to the 77th ISE Annual Meeting in Sydney, Australia.

Yours sincerely,

Prof. Debbie Silvester-Dean
